"Q3 2015 produced growth on a global level with mixed results by region," the analyst says. "All regions showed growth in both shipments and vendor revenue, except for E. Europe, Japan and Latin America, which posted revenue declines of -5.8%, -11.7% and -24.2%, respectively, for the period."

HP leads the server market in terms of revenues (reaching $3.7 billion with 9.1% Y-o-Y growth), as it commands 25.4% global server revenue share. Dell follows with revenues worth $2.4bn and 9% Y-o-Y growth, while 3rd placing IBM is the only top 5 vendors facing revenue declines (-42.8%) due to the x86 division sale to Lenovo.
