At the NEC Display Trends Forum 2015/16 (brings together NEC customers, partners, speakers and staff from 26 countries to discuss the industry today and its future), NEC Display Solutions Europe also featured the EMEA Partner Award Ceremony

Outstanding achievements by eight of NEC's partners were recognised.

The event, in Berlin, focused on the theme Discover Bright Places and featured the vibrant and rapidly changing world of visual communication. It was attended by 100 leading market strategists and implementation experts and gave delegates an understanding of how engaging visual experiences will affect customers and how business opportunities will evolve. Key topics included 'The Digital Space Race', focusing on the importance of size for signage, and 'The Brightest Places', exploring vertical industries that are leading the effective use of immersive and engaging display applications.

1. Desktop Monitors Partner of the Year, Ingram Micro (Germany)
2. Large Format Display Partner of the Year, Midwich (UK)
